

CAT 1: Twice Upon a Time: Lore, Adaptation, and Identity

Fall 2022

Lecture: T/Th 12:30-1:50PM

Instructor: Dr. Jenni Marchisotto

Email: jmarchis@ucsd.edu

Office:Hours: T/Th 10:30AM-11:30AM via Zoom and 2:15PM-3:15PM at the Mandeville Coffee Cart

Course Description

CAT 1 is a required 4-unit course offered every fall to Sixth College students in their first-year or their first fall quarter after successfully completing the Analytical Writing Program. As a 4-unit course during a summer session (5 weeks), students will spend approximately 300 minutes in lecture and 100 minutes in discussion section each week.

Course Topic

From myths to monsters, fairytales to fables, we tell stories to help make sense of the world around us. Shared lore helps create (and divide) communities, defining identity at both individual and national levels. From ancient civilizations to the Irish Revival movement in the early 1900s to contemporary retellings of African folklore in the work of Marlon James, Tomi Adeyemi, and Ayana Gray, mythology can simultaneously speak to the past, present, and future. In this CAT 1 course, we will embrace a broad definition of lore that encompasses diverse forms of storytelling to look at the ways narrative helps us understand the past and how adaptations of classic myths and tales can shift that understanding, revising and reinventing them for the current moment. We will look at texts from literary criticism as well as a variety of forms of popular culture including film, music, and television to hone our critical thinking and writing skills. We will also engage theories of critical race studies, critical gender studies, and disability studies to inform and enhance our engagement with the texts. Overall, we will consider how storytelling has helped to create history, but also how we can use those same stories to actively reinvent and shift our present moment through adaptation.

Required Texts/Technology

- Access to Canvas
- They Say, I Say CAT 5th Edition (you will use this also for CAT 2 & 3)

Course Objectives

By the end of CAT 1, students should be able to:

- Understand writing as a process (i.e. that includes, brainstorming, drafting, peer review, revision, reflection)
- Develop metacognitive and critical thinking skills
- Learn how to ask constructive questions.
- Practice writing as a learning strategy (this entails developing the ability to critically read, summarize, and respond to arguments)
- Learn how to read critically across a variety of genres and identify disciplinary discourse.

Core Course Concepts:

By the end of CAT 1, students should be able to understand and define the following terms/ideas:

- Ideology
- History as narrative
- Production of Knowledge (Culture, Art, Technology)

Core Skills:

Over the course of the term, students will practice and strengthen the following skills:

- Critical curiosity (active reading & asking productive questions)
- Summary (including identifying the parts of an argument when applicable)
- Analysis
- Paragraph structure
- Reflection & metacognition

Program Policies

Communication

In CAT, it is our hope that in this course we will develop a supportive learning community that fosters discussion, engagement, and excitement. Often, we will engage in the course material through the sharing of ideas, questions, and personal experiences. “Honesty, listening for understanding, a willingness to share your ideas, and respect for self and others” are basic guidelines that can help create a positive learning environment. Your participation and feedback are important to the success of the course and I welcome your thoughts throughout the term on how we might improve class processes that will encourage effective communication and dialogue.

On Inclusion and Creating an Equitable Classroom:

Please note that in this class, we will discuss the politics of race, and gender, among other intersections of identity, such as class, ability, and sexuality. These conversations can be difficult, thus, I expect you to practice respect, listening, patience, and kindness with and towards each other. This includes how you speak to both me (your professor), your TA, and your fellow classmates. In this course, your ideas may be challenged and I ask that you are open to that challenge, meeting it with intellectual curiosity, respect for others’ ideas and experiences, and empathy. I believe that ethical argumentation is imperative to a civil and just society and that is a value that I hope we form, instill, and engage with in this course. This is all to say, disagree with each other, with me, with your TA, but do so in a way that respectfully engages the other person's ideas.

Etiquette and Conduct

CAT students are expected to comply with the UCSD Principles of Community. In light of the on-going impact COVID-19 is having on all of our lives, please find below additional information on respectful engagement as part of both in-person and remote classroom spaces.

- Be respectful and kind to classmates and the instructor at all times. Our class will often deal with sensitive issues. While I neither expect nor wish students to always agree on ideas, differences of opinion need to be discussed considerately. Any individual who, as a result of their words or behavior, silences their classmates will be held accountable.
- Respect Diversity. Be sensitive to the rich and diverse, multi-cultural community in which we are participating, and show respect to authors and fellow attendees at all times. Please avoid any language that is—or that could be construed as—offensive toward others. Racist, sexist, and heterosexist comments are unacceptable, as are derogatory and/or sarcastic comments and jokes directed at religious beliefs, disabilities, weight, and age.
- Remember that it may sometimes be difficult to understand tone in written responses and consider how your audience might interpret your response in a remote context.
- If any student posts content to the course website that violates UCSD's Principles of Community, the post will be removed and your instructor will reach out to the author via email to discuss the issue.

My Responsibility to the Course:

- I will be prepared for lecture and invested in the material
- I will make lectures participatory and encourage active engagement as a part of daily work.
- I will respond to emails within 48 hours (excluding weekends and holidays)
- I will treat your work with honesty and compassion
- I will be willing to allow for extensions if you demonstrate engagement in the course and come speak with me early about needing one
- I will be a safe sounding board for ideas, whether related to your assignments or not
- I will take feedback about the course seriously

Your Responsibility to the Course:

- You will attend lectures on time, ready to participate
- You will attend section on time, ready to participate
- You will take responsibility for your actions and feelings, especially as they manifest within the course
- You will do the work assigned, both readings and writings, to the best of your ability (even if what qualifies "best" changes)
- You will do your own work with your best effort (even if what qualifies "best" changes)
(See UCSD Policies on Academic Integrity)
- You will offer your fellow writers honest and engaged critique.
- You will speak respectfully to me or your TA if you have any problems with the assignments or teaching methods; you will give us the chance to correct mistakes or address any miscommunication

- You will own your part of class culture (you will recognize that your experience with the class is in part your responsibility)

Accommodations:

Everyone should have the opportunity to succeed and learn during our time together. My goal is to make full participation and success in this class accessible to all students. If there is any feature of this course, from the readings to the assignments to the way we work together in class, that could be made more accessible to you, please discuss it with me as soon as possible. I am willing to consider any modification that will enable you to experience the class more effectively. You do not have to disclose or document any disability or illness, physical or mental, to me or to anyone else in order to discuss accommodations with me.

In addition, there are many resources available to you through UCSD. The peer tutors at the Writing Center can help you with any writing assignment at any stage of the writing process, from brainstorming to final revisions. The Office of Academic Support & Instructional Services (OASIS) offers tutoring and support in both academic subjects and study skills. Both of these resources exist to help you get the most out of your education, and are highly recommended for all students. If you have a documented disability, the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD) can support you in identifying and requesting relevant accommodations. Contact the OSD for further information: <http://disabilities.ucsd.edu>

According to the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD), “Students requesting accommodations for this course due to a disability must provide a current Authorization for Accommodation (AFA) letter issued by the OSD. Students are required to present their AFA letters to the MCWP Program Representative/OSD liaison in advance so that accommodations can be arranged.” Contact OSD at (858) 534-4382, osd@ucsd.edu. Per university policy, OSD accommodations are not retroactive. The CAT OSD liaison is Lynette Brossard: lbrossard@ucsd.edu.

CalFresh & Basic Needs Information

If you are facing food insecurity, we encourage you to contact calfresh@ucsd.edu, call (858) 246-5581, or visit the CalFresh Website. For more information on food and housing resources, please visit the Basic Needs Center or The HUB Basic Needs Center located at the Original Student Center, Building A, Room E-100, to the left of the Triton Food Pantry.

Assignment Submission and Late Work

- All written assignments must be submitted to Canvas, with the exception of in-class work.
- All assignments must be formatted according to MLA guidelines including a header clearly identifying your name, your TA’s name, and other required information.
- In order to receive a letter grade, all assignments must be submitted through Turnitin on Canvas.
- Assignments are due on or before the due date and time listed. Failure to submit on time will result in the loss of 1/3 of a letter grade for each day late including weekends. If the assignment is more than a week late, you will receive an F.

- Make-up or late engagement work, for lecture or section, must be approved first. In other words, engagement work not turned in on time will receive no credit, unless the instructor or TA has granted an exception.

Academic Integrity

UCSD has a university-wide Policy on Integrity of Scholarship, published annually in the General Catalog, and online <https://academicintegrity.ucsd.edu/>. All students must read and be familiar with this Policy. All suspected violations of academic integrity will be reported to UCSD's Academic Integrity Coordinator. Students found to have violated UCSD's standards for academic integrity may include suspension or dismissal, and academic sanctions may include failure of the assignment or failure of the course.

Course Policies

Peer Review, Self-Evaluation, and Reflection

Self-assessment, reflection, and collaboration are core components of the first year writing program at UCSD. In this class (and CAT broadly), you will do a fair amount of peer review, revision, working in groups, and reflection on your work. That is, be prepared both to receive and offer constructive criticism and re-work your writing, presentations, etc.

- Peer Review will happen regularly, so be prepared to work with your peers and offer constructive critique and receive feedback.
- Revision will be a crucial component of each major assignment. Failure to revise an assignment and/or participate in peer review will lower your final assignment grade by $\frac{1}{3}$ a letter grade.
- Self-Evaluations and Reflections are also a crucial part of this course. I will ask you to do reflections on your work throughout the term and a final reflective portfolio. If you fail to do a reflection, it will lower your final assignment grade by $\frac{1}{3}$ a letter grade.

Participation and Attendance

Participation in lecture and discussion section is very important. Lecture attendance ensures that you understand and can ask questions about the specificities of your topic. Our lecture will also be interactive, and will involve a great deal of small group work. Discussion sections build community and provide a space to work through your ideas and engage with your peers. Work done during these times contributes to your overall participation grade as well as to your assignment grades. Ultimately, you create the majority of a class's success. Without the students, there is no class - only readings.

If you must miss a lecture or discussion, please contact your peers and teaching assistant about what you miss.

For Lecture and Section:

- You are allowed 4 absences from lecture and 2 absences from discussion section (i.e. 2 weeks of CAT 1) without penalty. For every additional absence, you will lose $\frac{1}{3}$ a letter on your course grade.
- Arriving more than 10 minutes late for section two times counts as one absence.

Overall, your health and well being should be the priority. These absences are yours to use as you choose. If you have an emergency or if there are any extenuating circumstances that would cause you to miss more than two weeks of class, please let me and your TA know as soon as you are able so that we can make sure to provide any necessary support.

Assignments and Grade Breakdown

Writing Assignments - 60%

- 8 total throughout the quarter.
- NOTE: Your lowest grade will be dropped.

Completion Assignments - 5%

- Introductory Survey & Buckley Waiver
- Beginning Reflection
- Library Tutorial

Engagement - 10%

- Lecture
- Section

Final Portfolio - 25%

Grading Policies

- CAT Writing Rubric
- Failure to turn in all writing assignments will result in the loss of a full letter grade for the course. Even though the lowest score in your writing assignments will be dropped, you are required to submit all assignments and follow their directions.
- Assignments will be assessed using a 10 point scale, with only ½ point intervals:
 - Outstanding - 10
 - High Pass - 9 or 9.5
 - Pass - 8 or 8.5
 - Low Pass - 7 or 7.5
 - Not Passing - 5
- Limitations on possible points enable more effective holistic grading, as well as discourage “point negotiation.” Do not ask your TA to give you a score of .25 or .75.
- Final Portfolio assignments are NOT assessed by your TA and can receive only the following grades:
 - High Pass - 9.5
 - Pass - 8.5
 - Low Pass - 7.5
 - Not Passing - 5
- For purposes of final course grades as calculated by Canvas’s gradebook, the following ranges will determine letter grades submitted to eGrades:
 - A+ (96.6-100)
 - A (93.6-96.5)
 - A- (89.6-93.5)
 - B+ (86.6-89.5)

- B (83.6-86.5)
 - B- (79.6-83.5)
 - C+ (76.6-79.5)
 - C (73.6-76.5)
 - C- (69.6-73.5)
 - D (60-69.5)
 - F (0-59.9)
- If you feel as though you earned a grade different than what you received on an assignment you may request a regrade. All disputes over grades must be conducted according to the following guidelines:
 - Wait 48 hours after receiving a grade before disputing it.
 - Contact your TA for an appointment to discuss the grade.
 - Attend your appointment having read the TA's comments and the CAT rubric thoroughly.
 - Only after you have discussed your essay with your TA may you request a regrade from the course instructor. To request a regrade you must write a letter to the instructor stating your case and providing specific evidence as to why you believe your grade should be changed. Such evidence must discuss elements of your writing, including thesis, use of analysis, organization, and argumentation.
 - I will review your letter and the assignment(s) in question and make a decision based on that evidence. However, please note that I reserve the right to lower your grade should I feel your TA has graded too generously.
